Sherlock Holmes.

Data! Data! Data!

About the list of Sherlockian Purveyors:

The list of Sherlockian Purveyors is a way for you to find all kinds of things  related to Sherlock Holmes. There are, of course, many, many books, booksellers, and purveyors of written materials of all sorts and then there is a purveyor who sells Sherlock Holmes stained glass chandeliers for your dining room.

This IS NOT a list of everything that is for sale. That would be an impossible job! This is a list of who says they sell what. I do not propose in any way that this is an all-inclusive list, but I have tried to find and put in this database as many places as you might want to buy something relating to Sherlock Holmes.

The list generally does not include most booksellers, as Amazon shows 20,000+ items in that category. It does not include non-Sherlockian magazines which may have one article about Sherlock Holmes in one issue.

I show below a few specialized publishers, distributors, or sellers that specialize in Sherlock Holmes and would be glad to add a few more to this list.

- The BSI Press, <https://bakerstreetirregulars.com/the-bsi-press/>
- The Sherlock Holmes Society of London, <http://www.sherlock-holmes.org.uk/shop/>
- Gasogene Books, <http://www.wessexpress.com/>
- MX Publishing, <http://mxpublishing.tumblr.com>
- Belanger Books? <https://www.belangerbooks.com/>

- Battered Silicon Dispatch Box <http://www.batteredbox.com/>
- Wessex Press, www.wessexpress.com

And a website for lots (1,926 the last time I looked) of Sherlockian Things,

If you are searching for information about Sherlock Holmes, I suggest you go to Google which, last time I checked, had about 146, 000,000 (!) links to Sherlock Holmes.

I welcome all changes and corrections. Since some of these items are offered only for a limited time I particularly appreciate knowing when something is not available or some organization has ceased to sell Sherlockian things.

A word about phone numbers: For organizations outside of the North American Numbering System (XXX-XXX-XXXX) you may have to do some research. In some cases the organizations include the international dialing prefix and code from the USA and some do not. If you are placing the call from other than the country code of the organization itself, other digits may be needed. I suggest you look at <http://www.countrycallingcodes.com/> or similar websites to guide you through the maze, particularly if you are calling Tanzania from Tonga. Oh, and be ready for "The number you have reached is not in service." in 164 languages!
