THE WOMAN

Honored by invitation to the cocktail hour preceding the Annual Dinner of The B.S.I. The custom was formalized by Julian Wolff in 1961, which also is the year when, irregularly, two ladies were invited; according to the report published in the BSJ (March 1961, p. 53), the First Irregular Toast was delivered to "A Certain Gracious Lady," Mrs. Edgar W. Smith, by Julian Wolff, and Carl Anderson gave the First Canonical Toast to Mrs. James Montgomery, The Woman.

Ladies were honored during the cocktail hour in earlier years, and some (but not all) of them have been identified. Edgar W. Smith was (as Jon L. Lellenberg has observed) often "deliberately opaque when it came to BSI association with the Fair Sex," but we do know about Edith Meiser (1942), Gypsy Rose Lee (1943), Lee Wright (1944), Helene Yuhasova (1946), Mrs. Morris L. Kaplan (Carolyn A. Davis, daughter of Elmer Davis) (1947), Sylvia Porter (1957), and Maria von Krebs (1959). It is reasonable to assume that there were others, and of course we hope to be able to identify them.

Beginning in 1967, The Woman has proceeded from the cocktail hour to a small dinner party, sometimes at a restaurant chosen by The Woman of the previous year. More than one lady was occasionally invited to the cocktail hour, and many ladies beginning in 1992, but only one has been honored as The Woman.
